E-J ELECTRIC PARTICIPATES IN SECOND ANNUAL HUDSON VALLEY BIKE RIDE TO SUPPORT JBFCs; OVER $550,000 RAISED FOR CHARITY

NEW YORK—August 13, 2010 – E-J Electric Installation Co. (E-J) is pleased to announce that the company participated in the Second Annual Hudson Valley Bike Ride on July 18, 2010 in support of the Jewish Board of Family & Children’s Services (JBFCs) and helped to raise over $550,000. JBFCs topped its fundraising efforts from last year by nearly $100,000.

Anthony Mann, President, E-J Electric Installation Co., is the Board President of JBFCs. Many cyclists from E-J joined in to ride distances of 10 miles, 25 miles, 62 miles or 100 miles starting from Hawthorne, NY. Riders were treated to a BBQ lunch and the entertainment of musical guest Road Recovery.

JBFCs is one of the nation’s largest and most respected non-profit social service agencies. With 175 programs operating in all five boroughs and beyond, it serves approximately 65,000 clients annually from all religious, ethnic and socio-economic backgrounds. The agency provides services for a variety of needs such as mental illness, child services, domestic violence, development disabilities and more. Every night of the year, JBFCs provides a home to one thousand individuals who sleep in their beds.
